INDIANAPOLIS, May 29 .- "Win the election here to-day. The delegates and spectators at times wildly applauded the patriotic sentiments expressed by the speakers and in the platform, inefficiency should be defended.

same time reserving the right to criticize corruption and inefficiency in its conduct. Governor James P. Goodrich, of Indiana, as temporary chairman, also where necessary, merchant marine. It noke along similar lines. Nominations for only three places on the state ticket were contested, the Most of these were renominations of present state officers.

Calls Wilson Uncompromising Declaring that President Wilson is the most astute leader the Democratic party ever had, Senator New in his speech as permanent chairman assert-ed that he is also the "most uncom-promising in his partisanship of any man who has occupied the White House since the days of Andrew Jackson." Senator New continued:

man who has occupied the White House since the days of Andrew Jackson." Senator New continued:

"President Wilson is a partisan in everything he does or thinks—as adroit as he is persistent. It is evident that the slogan of his party in the campaign before us is to be 'Stand by the President,' and the attending argument that, if one is a patriot and a true American, he must elect the candidates of the President's party for seats in Congress in order that he may have support in that body; or that if one fails to support those candidates, he votes to discredit the President and his administration and gives aid and comfort to our enemy in gives aid and comfort to our enemy in Senator New, in conclusion, "is, "Go thead." We are with you heart and oul, in life and in purse, in the things that have to do with the winning of the war, but, make no mistake, we abate no particle of our devotion to the party of our choice and yield nothing of our principles, but reassert them."

Asserting that the supreme duty of every individual and every political party is to win the war, the platform submitted by the resolutions committee declares that "every action of the Republican party in state and nation shall be determined solely by how we can add most to the sum total of war good."

also reaffirms the party's declaration in favor of woman suffrage.

It contends that government lands, where available for homesteads, should first be offered to American soldiers. It also indorses the work of United States Senators New and Watson, of Indiana, and the administration of Governor Goodrich. The platform deals at length with state issues.

The plank dealing with the war was ritten by Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, ho was chosen chairman of the resolutions committee. The plank in part illows:

"In Congress Republicans have given their votes, often the deciding votes, for the grant of every power and all the money demanded by the Administration. In this course of action they will persist without wavering or shadow of turning.

"This is the war of no political party.

"This is the war of no political party. This is the country's war, and we charge and deplore that the party in power is guilty of practising petty partisan politics to the serious detriment of the country's cause.

"We insist that this cease, and we appeal to all patriots, whatever their politics, to aid us in every way possible in our efforts to require that partisan politics be taken out and kept women to support the government without thought of party.

"We insist that every possible efficient instrument and all possible men and material which are available shall be used to aid in winning the war, and that inefficiency shall be replaced by efficiency wherever found."

Loyal Criticism Defended

The platform denounces any criticism of public officials when such criticisms are inspired by partisanship or disloyalty, but declares that courageous and loyal criticism of corruption and inefficiency, should be defended.

Germany and Argentina To Resume Relations

Police Help Abolish Dangers to Health

BUENOS AYRES, Tuesday, May 28.—
Germany is again to have accredited diplomatic representation here. Count Donhoff, who was secretary to the legation under Count von Luxburg, the dismissed ambassador, will present his credentials to-morrow to the Foreign Office as the German Chargé d'Affaires.

The unsettled situation between the German Legation and the Argentine Foreign Office, which existed since the expulsion of Count Luxburg, after the revelation of his messages advising the sinking of Argentine vessels "without trace," will thus be clarified.

Yesterday was "Correction Day" in the calendar of Dr. Royal S. Copeland's "Health Week" activities. Inspectors of the Health Department, in co-operation with the police, devoted themselves to correcting existing dangers to health and warning those inclined to ignore health laws.

Inspectors, stationed in the subway and elevated stationed in the subway and elevated stations, enforced the laws against expectorating in public places and many warnings were given. Policemen cooperated in warning pedestrians against expectorating on the sidewalk or throwing fruit skins upon it. Warnings also were given against throwing refuse in public places.

"No health drive would be complete," said Dr. Copeland yesterday, "without a day devoted to correcting conditions adverse to health. A fruit skin dropped on the sidewalk is a minor offence, but it may result in a serious accident.
